EVENING STAR.

TUFSDAY ..... December 5, 1876.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Conclusion Yesterday's Proceedings. HOUSE .- After our report closed-Mr. Hoar, Mass., characterized Mr. Spring-

T's proposition to refer THE COLORADO MEMBERS credentials to the judiciary committee as ut-terly idle and futile, and pointed to the facts as matters of history that the territorial gov-ernment of Colorado had ended and that the state government (legislative, judicial, and executive,) had taken its place, and that the Senators from that state had already taken their seats.

Mr. Hurlburt, Ill., argued to the same effect, and held that there would be as much right to challenge the state of Illinois as that of Colorado.

Mr. Wood, N. Y., argued that as the House had unquestioned right to inquire into the election of the members, that right involved in this case not only a consideration as to the regularity of the oredentials of the person, but also as to what constituency he claimed to represent. When the House adjourned in August last Colorado was a territory, and it was the right and duty of the House to inquire whether it had been converted into a test. verted into a state in pursuance of the Constitution and laws.

Mr. Jenks, Pa., submitted that there were sufficient points of doubt involved in the question to justify its reference to a com-

Mr. Springer defended the propriety of his proposition, remarking that the delay in the admission of a member would work no injustice to Colorado, whose population was smaller than that of any Congressional district, and which yet claimed two seats in the Senate one in the Hermannian three contracts. the Senate, one in the House, and three votes in the electoral college. This geutleman might wait as representatives of other states had been kept waiting around the halls of Congress until the judicial committee of the House should pass upon the energies. House should pass upon the question.

After some preliminary voies, the question was taken on Mr. Springer's resolution re-ferring the credentials of the Colorado member to the judiciary committee, and it was adopted—yeas 142, nays 98. The republicans voted solidly against it, as did the following-named democrats:—Blount. Cox. Durham, Hartzell, Holman, Kehr, Leddoyne, Morgan, Neal, O'Brien, Rea, Savage, Stevenson, Watterson and Wells. Mr. McCrary presented the credentials of Mr. Buttz, S. C., but, remarking that the decision of the question (opposition being made) would consume time, he offered to yield the floor for a motion to adjourn. Mr. Holman was about to make the motion to adjourn, but at the request of Mr. Hewitt, he withheld the motion, to allow a resolution which that gentleman desired to offer to be read for information of the House.

MR. HEWITT'S RESOLUTION provides for the appointment of threee select committees, one of fifteen members to proceed to Louisiana, one of six members to proceed to Florida, and one of nine members to proceed to South Carolina, to investigate the action of the returning boards as to the recent elections in those states, and to report all the facts essential to an honest return of votes of electors for President and Vice-President and to a fair understanding thereof by the people and whether the electoral vote of those states should be counted. The committee are to have power to send for persons and papers, to take testimony, to appoint sub-committees with like powers, and to employ stenographers, clerks and mrssengers

The Speaker asked Mr. McCrary whether he would yield to have the resolution offered. Mr. McCrary said he would not. Mr. Hewiti asked whether he could not move to suspend the rules and adopt the res-

Kerr, expressive of his unblemished character, his eminent services and his impartiality as a presiding officer.

Mr. McCrary declined to yield unless the usual phrase were added to the resolution:

that as a further mark of esteem the House do now adjourn. Mr. Hamilton declined to make that modification, and thereupon the House proceeded to the consideration of the question of admitting BUTTZ, OF SOUTH CAROLINA. to his scat—the point against his admission being that he has been "counted in" by the returning board.

Mr. Morrison presented a memorial and protest signed by citizens of the district against the admission of Buttz, and moved the reference of the question to the committee on elections. Mr. Morrison's motion was adopted, 142 to offer his resolution for the appointment of three select committees. Objections were promptly made on the republican side of the House. Mr. Hewitt then moved to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution. Further objection was made that motions

Mr. Hewitt then asked unanimous consent to suspend rules are not in order on Mondays until after what is technically known as the morning hour, during which states are called for bills and resolutions. The Speaker overruled the objection, bas ing his decision on the point that the rule on the subject says that "after the reading of the journal" the morning hour shall begin, and that as there has been no journal to be read to-day the rule did not apply, and there could be no morning hour.

Mr. Kasson appealed from the decision.

Mr. Hewitt moved to lay on the table Mr. Kasson's appeal from the Chair. Agreed to-yeas 144, navs 73. The question then came up on Mr. Hewitt's motion to suspend the rules and adopt the

Mr. Kasson suggested that the resolution should be modified so as to apply only to the election of federal officers. Objections were made by Messrs. Hewitt, Cox, Blackburn and other democratic meme bers, who insisted upon the regular order.

Mr. Hewitt's motion was adopted—yeas 156, nays 78; the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative. The announcement was hailed by the democratic side of the House with demonstrations of applause. It was a party vote, except that Messrs. George A. Bagley and Pierce and Seeley voted with the demo

Sayler, of Ohio; Abbott, of Mass.; Stenger, of Va.; Eden, of Ill.; Jones, of Ky.; Phillips. of Mo.; Banks, of Mass.; Hale, of Me., and Lawrence, of Ohio.

Mr. Hoar, of Mass., stated that Mr. Hale was not in the city, and that, therefore, the putting him on the committee was to deprise

A POLITICAL CRISIS AT HAND. Last Night's Dispatches in Reference to the Electoral Vote.

SOUTH CAROLINA

all yesterday afternoon; whatever action was taken is unknown. The republican members of the senate held a cancus previous to the regular hour of meeting of the body, which was not harmonious, and lasted until 1 p. m. When the senate met the session was unimportant until just before 2 p. m., when it was moved that the senate adjourn. This motion was carried by a vote of 16 ayes to 14 noes. This action was regarded as importhoes. This action was regarded as important, as 2 o'clock yesteriay was the hour set for counting the vote for governor, and as the senate adjourned without considering that question or postponing it to some fature day, it was virtually disposed of by that body and must originate in the house to come up again. The question is whether the sea-ate will recognize the Mackey house as a constitutional body, with a membership of fifty-six only holding certificates from the board of state canvassers, while sixty three is necessary to a quorum, or the democratic house with sixty members, requiring only three to make a quorum. The city last night was full of people, and others were arriving. The supreme court heard the argument during the entire day on the application for a mandamus requiring the secretary of state to deliver the returns for governor and ties. tenant-governor to Speaker Wallace, and adjourned at 7:30 p. m. until to-day at 11 a. m. As this question involves the other question as to which is the legal house of representa-tives, the action of the court is looked forward to with great interest.

FLORIDA Yesterday morning at Talinhassee was con-Yesterday morning at Talinhassee was con-sumed principally with the presentation of the general argument of the democratic. This was prepared by the democratic lawyers who are there, and was presented by Colonel George W. Biddle, of Philadelphia. It is an elaborate document, laying down certain general and well-settled principles of law, and then discussing the cases of the contested and then discussing the cases of the contested counties under one or the other of these principles. It closes by asking: First, that the board simply figure up the face of the returns in which it claims 129 majority for Tilden; or if it sees fit to go behind the face of the returns, that it throw out certain counties and precincts, which will leave a majority of 1,297 for the Tilden electors. The republicans offered no general argument, but spent the day in offering new affidavits and testimony. The decision of the board is confidently looked for to-day. It is not possible to make a ros-sonable guess as to what it will be.

Mr. Humphries, republican candidate for elector, who was reported to be ineligible to an electorship, as he was a shipping master at Pensacola, came before the board yesterday and that his resignation was accented a worst and that his resignation was accepted a week before the election. NEBRASKA.

At Omaha yesterday counsel for the republican electors asked Judge Savage to put the case wherein democratic electors petition for an injunction to prevent the former from casting their votes over till this morning. But the judge decided he would hold a night ses-sion. Counsel then put in a demurrer, and were arguing it last night, quoting authorities to show that the petition is not a perfect one, and also that the court has no jurisdition in the matter. Should the court overrule the demurrer, the case will be tried on its merits today. It seems to be the general belief that the republican electors will meet and cast their votes without regard to the decision of the case. Energetic efforts continue to be made by the republicans to get a quorum at the extra session of the legislature at Lincoln to-day. A good many members passed through Omaha yesterday en-route there. The democrats are wielding all their powers to prevent a quorum being present. OREGON.
